

Causing harmony to the environment with

Saturday 18th May, 7:30pm
Yackandandah Public Hall

$30 - $25 concession - $25 Arts Yack member - $10 child

Ecopella sings 'save-the-world music' - a cappella songs about the global environmental crisis and the struggle of good people to build a peaceful, clean and just future for the planet. The choir is making its first tour of Victoria and promoting its third album, Green Footprints.

This will be a benefit concert for Totally Renewable Yackandandah's Perpetual Energy Fund and will involve some local guests!

<https://www.trybooking.com/BCAQH>

Contact:
ecopella.org
totallyrenewableyack.org.au

Supported by Arts
Yackandandah

Sunday 19th May, 10:30am - noon
Yackandandah Courthouse

Singing workshop, $20 ($10 concession)

Using your voice together with others is a connecting and powerful experience! Ecopella's musical director Miguel Heatwole will put some renewable energy into your voice and together we'll make sustainable chords!

You won't need to be a music reader (most of us learn by ear), but if you are, all of our songs are scored.

<https://www.trybooking.com/BCATM>

All our hands and all our voi - ces, joined in work, and speech and song, build our best hope for the world: in - te - gri - ty will keep us strong!